Business Report

(From April 1, 2022 to March 31, 2023)

1. Business progress and achievement of the corporate group

(1) Business activities and results

During the fiscal year under review, the Japanese economy continued to resume economic and social activity, despite the protracted situation in Ukraine, rising prices, and other limiting factors. In the environment of the logistics industry, the effects of supply chain disruptions, as evidenced by shortages in the supply of sea and air transportation space and steep rises in freight rates, began to subside.

In this economic environment, the Group launched a new five-year plan, "Medium-Term Management Plan 2022," from the fiscal year under review, with the pillars of its growth strategy being Top-line Growth by Mobilizing the Group's Collective Strength, Reinforcement of Operational Competitiveness, and Building Management Foundations to Support the Deepening. The Group has been expanding new and existing businesses in a well-balanced manner by accurately grasping customer needs.

The operating situation of MITSUI-SOKO HOLDINGS Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and its group companies included an increase in handling for forwarding operations due to the securing of flexible space amid the lingering effects of supply chain disruptions. In addition, there was an increase in handling for overseas logistics operations due to proposals to streamline logistics operations from overseas to domestic in response to changing customer needs. As a result, consolidated operating revenue amounted to $300,836 million, down $185 million, or 0.1%, year on year, consolidated operating profit was $25,961 million, up $22 million, or 0.1%, consolidated ordinary profit was $26,533 million, up $980 million, or 3.8%, and profit attributable to owners of parent was $15,617 million, up $1,113 million, or 7.7%, setting a new record-high profit for the third year in a row.

Logistics Business

Operating revenue ¥292,022 million (Down ¥190 million year on year)

Operating profit

¥23,923 million (Up ¥188 million year on year)

In addition to an increase in handling for forwarding operations due to the securing of flexible space amid the lingering effects of supply chain disruptions, there was an increase in handling for overseas logistics operations due to proposals to streamline logistics operations from overseas to domestic in response to changing customer needs. There were also contributions from proposals for alternative transportation routes that contribute to BCP measures and logistics solutions to reduce environmental impact. Furthermore, handling volume increased as a result of the year-round operation of a newly built warehouse exclusively for healthcare logistics and a logistics center for consumer electronics retailers and e-commerce. As a result, operating revenue amounted to $\frac{2292,022}{190}$ million, or 0.1%, year on year, and operating profit was $\frac{23,923}{100}$ million, up $\frac{188}{1100}$ million, or 0.8%.

Real Estate Business

Operating revenue ¥9,629 million (UP ¥54 million year on year)

Operating profit ¥5,908 million (Up ¥110 million year on year)

Operating revenue amounted to $9,629 million, up $54 million, or 0.6%, year on year, and operating profit was $5,908 million, up $110 million, or 1.9%, both of which are nearly unchanged from the level as the previous fiscal year.

(5) Issues to be addressed

Having recognized a need to review its raison d'être as a corporate group in order to achieve a further leap forward and sustainable growth under a rapidly changing business environment, the Group formulated a new "Group Philosophy (Purpose, Vision, Values) in May 2022, and is formulating a five-year plan, the "Medium-Term Management Plan 2022," beginning in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 and ending in the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027.

Group Philosophy

Going forward, this Group Philosophy will be positioned as the highest management concept. By promoting the new medium-term management plan that we have formulated under this philosophy, we will work to increase corporate value over the medium to long term and build a sustainable society, thereby meeting the expectations of our stakeholders and society.

Purpose (meaning of our existence)

"Empower society, encourage progress"

Vision (what we want to become in the medium- to long-term span) "The co-creative logistics solutions partner. For everyday, emergency, and always will be"

Values (corporate values and action guidelines)

PRIDE	Responsibility and pride in empowering our society
CHALLENGE	Strive to create and execute sustainable proposals for both our customers and society
GEMBA	Our frontline: The base of potential, power, and progress
RESPECT	Embrace diverse ideas, co-create new value

Medium-Term Management Plan 2022

In our previous Medium-term Management Plan 2017, we positioned the first three years as a reversal period, focusing on strengthening our business profitability and rebuilding our financial base. In the last two years of the plan, we primarily worked on the three key areas for sustainable growth: Construction of Overwhelming Field Capabilities, Establishment of End-to-end Integrated Solution Services, and ESG Management.

As a result, we successfully achieved all of our numerical targets, attained the reversal of our business, and laid the foundation for sustainable growth in the future.

Under the new Medium-term Management Plan 2022, we aim to achieve further growth by deepening our efforts to date. As the first-call company that can be trusted by our customers, we will go on the offensive with aggressive investment, focusing on the three pillars of our growth strategy: Top-line Growth by Mobilizing the Group's Collective Strength, Reinforcement of Operational Competitiveness, and Building Management Foundations to Support the Deepening.

Growth Strategy

(i) Top-line Growth by Mobilizing the Group's Collective Strength

We will promote a deepening of our integrated solution services, which is our unique business model, expanding our sustainability-oriented business with our competitive abilities to make and execute proposals, and digging deeper into our inter-industry operations by making the most of the Group's broad customer base and various logistics features.

(ii) Reinforcement of Operational Competitiveness

By deepening our efforts toward thorough standardization, we will realize our "overwhelming field capabilities" that combine the power of people with the power of technology. We also aim to secure a competitive advantage by improving the quality of our operations, and furthermore, to improve profitability by lowering the cost of operations.

(iii) Building Management Foundation to Support the Deepening

We will strengthen our management base in the following four aspects:

DX	Transformation of business models and reform of corporate culture
Co-creation	Creation of mechanisms to generate innovation and the strengthening of alliances with various platformers
Business Assets	Development of new office buildings and logistics facilities, enhancement of the asset value of existing facilities, and the improvement of the work environment
ESG	Reinforcement of efforts to realize a decarbonized society, an expansion of investment in human capital, and the enhancement of governance

Financial Strategy

In the Medium-term Management Plan 2017, we restrained investment and reduced interest-bearing debt in order to rebuild our financial base. In the Medium-term Management Plan 2022, we aim to achieve both proactive investment and enhanced shareholder returns based on the financial base and profitability established in the previous medium-term management plan.

• Make an investment of ¥130 billion in total.

-¥100 billion for strategic investment in growth areas, such as DX investment, investment in new equipment (physical distribution/real estate), and M&A

-¥30 billion for ordinary investment (investment in maintenance/renewal of existing facilities)

- Strengthen shareholder returns based on a payout ratio of 30%.
- Procure and operate based on the optimal debt-to-equity ratio of 1.0
- Set a target of return of equity (ROE) of over 12%, aiming to maintain a high level of capital efficiency.

Numerical Targets (End of March 31, 2027)

(2) Outline of directors and officers liability insurance policy

However, the Company has taken measures to ensure that the appropriateness of the execution of duties by officers, etc. is not impaired by exempting from compensation criminal acts such as bribery and damage caused by officers, etc. themselves in case they intentionally commit illegal acts. (3) Amount of remuneration for directors and audit & supervisory board members

(i) Policy for determining the details of remuneration for officers

By resolution of its Board of Directors, the Company has adopted its policy for determining details of remuneration for individual directors.

The Board of Directors deems that details of remuneration, etc. on an individual basis for the fiscal year align with the policy, upon such details having been decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. The policy for determining the details of remuneration for individual directors is as follows:

- 1. Determining amounts of monetary remuneration not linked to performance indicators with respect to the Company and determining calculation methods thereof. The Company enlists the following method in calculating remuneration for its individual directors. Upon having set the remuneration amount of its full-time directors as a reference value, the Company then calculates a position-based standard amount that serves as a basis for calculating remuneration of individual directors, produced by multiplying the reference value by a set coefficient determined on the basis of a director's position and other such metrics. The position-based standard amount consists of a fixed portion and a variable portion, which in turn consists of a performance-linked evaluation portion and an individual evaluation-linked portion. The fixed portion of the position-based standard amount constitutes the amount of monetary remuneration not linked to performance indicators.
- 2. Description of performance indicators associated with performance-linked remuneration and determining methods for calculating amounts and quantities thereof

The Company designates consolidated operating profit as an indicator for the performance-linked evaluation portion of monetary remuneration for motivating recipients to increase corporate value by improving business performance. The Company also uses as an indicator consolidated profit before income taxes, which reflects results of investments and loans. On the basis of these indicators, the Company enlists a table stipulated by its rules on officer remuneration in coming up with scores based on ratios of current fiscal year targets relative to current fiscal year results, and based on ratios of previous fiscal year results relative to current fiscal year results. The Company then applies these scores to the performance-linked evaluation portion of remuneration for the subsequent fiscal year. For the individual evaluation-linked portion of remuneration, the Company comes up with scores based on ratios of current fiscal year targets relative to current fiscal year job performance of each director. The Company then applies these scores to the individual evaluation-linked portion for the subsequent fiscal year job performance of each director. The Company then applies these scores to the individual evaluation-linked portion for the subsequent fiscal year job performance of each director. The Company then applies these scores to the individual evaluation-linked portion for the subsequent fiscal year pob performance of each director. The company then applies these scores to the individual evaluation-linked portion for the subsequent fiscal year. Meanwhile, remuneration for individual outside directors is equal to the position-based standard amount without the variable portion.

3. Description of non-monetary remuneration, etc. and determining methods for calculating amounts and quantities thereof

The Company has established a non-monetary remuneration scheme to provide restricted shares based on payment of monetary remuneration claims equivalent to 10% of the position-based standard amount, in order to share the benefits and risks of share price fluctuations with the shareholders and increase motivation to increase the share price and improve corporate value.

4. Determining ratios with respect to the amount of monetary remuneration not linked to the performance indicators, the amount of performance-linked remuneration and the amount of remuneration for individual directors in the form of non-monetary remuneration

The fixed portion and the variable portion of monetary remuneration are determined on the basis of a ratio of 7:3.

Due to volatility of the variable portion, the remuneration scheme is set up such that the variable portion theoretically ranges from a low of 70% (7:0) of the position-based standard amount to a high of 130% (7:6) of the position-based standard amount.

In addition, the scheme is designed to provide monetary remuneration claims equivalent to 10% of the position-based standard amount, subject to payment into restricted shares, which are non-monetary remuneration.

5. Determining the timing and conditions for granting remuneration to directors

Monetary remuneration for each director constitutes a fixed monthly payment consisting of the sum total of the fixed portion and the variable portion during the director's term of office.

Non-monetary remuneration for each director is to be provided at a fixed time in the total amount of share-based remuneration determined by the Company.

- 6. In case where decisions on details of remuneration for individual directors are fully or partially assigned to directors and other third parties
 - A. Names of the persons to whom decisions are assigned, or such person's position and responsibilities at said corporation

The Company's Board of Directors assigns decisions on details of remuneration for individual director(s) to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Details on the organization, membership, and overview of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee are as follows.

Organization name: Nomination and Remuneration Committee

Committee members: Three outside directors, the President & CEO and the Chairman

Committee chair: Outside director appointed upon having been mutually elected by committee members

- B. Authority delegated
 - (a) Determination on standard remuneration amounts for each of the respective positions
 - (b) Determination on amounts of remuneration for individual directors
 - (c) Design of scheme of remuneration for individual directors and reporting in response to the President's inquiries regarding calculation methods

C. Measures to ensure that parties assuming authority properly exercise such delegated authority

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee enlists a resolution method that entails initially having its committee members sufficiently engage in deliberation and discussion regarding proposals submitted by the President, then subsequently forming a resolution through approval by a majority vote of the committee members, with the outside director serving as committee chair making the final decision on approval should the vote end in a tie.

7. Method for determining details on remuneration for individual directors

Decisions on remuneration for individual directors are assigned to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee per resolution of the Board of Directors, from the perspective of ensuring objectivity and transparency of the decision-making process. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee determines reference values that form the basis of the position-based standard amount, upon having comprehensively taken into account factors that include employee salaries, the previous year's remuneration, and prevailing remuneration levels of other companies, etc. Remuneration amounts are then determined upon subsequent discussion of proposed remuneration amounts submitted separately by the Representative Director, President & CEO.

8. Important matters regarding decision on remuneration for individual directors

Within its rules on officer remuneration, the Company stipulates policy for determining amounts of officer remuneration and methods for calculating such remuneration, underpinned by its aim of seeking to increase corporate value by ensuring commitment to officer performance. In addition, the Board of Directors may partially reduce remuneration of a director in the event of situations that include subpar performance on a prolonged basis or a sharp decline in performance, in which case the President is to consult with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and receive a report from it.

The number of directors (excluding outside directors) as of the conclusion of the said Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders was six. The Company will cancel the transfer restrictions on all of the restricted shares upon the expiration of the restriction period (or at the time immediately following the director's retirement or resignation, provided that they retire or resign from the position of director or executive officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries due to the expiration of their term of office, retirement age, or any other reason deemed justifiable by the Board of Directors, or if they retire or resign due to death), provided that the director has continuously held the position of either director or executive officer of the Company or its subsidiaries from the commencement date of the restriction period until the first ordinary general meeting of shareholders to be held after the commencement date of the restriction period. 6. System to ensure the properness of operations

The following provides an overview of matters that involve making decisions regarding the system for ensuring that the execution of duties by the directors conforms to applicable laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation, and other systems for ensuring the properness of corporate operations.

(i) System to ensure that execution of duties by directors and employees of the Group companies conforms to laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation of such companies

Each of the Group companies has established its corporate code of conduct which serves as a code of conduct for its directors and employees regarding matters that include compliance with laws, regulations, articles of incorporation, and social norms, shunning involvement with antisocial forces, respect for human rights, initiatives to protect the environment, and information management.

The Company's Risk Management Division seeks to raise compliance awareness of the overall Group by providing oversight on a Group-wide basis and carrying out enlightenment and educational activities centered on the Risk Management Division. In addition, the Risk Management Division performs audits regarding the status of compliance within the Group. It periodically reports on such initiatives to the Compliance Committee, Board of Directors, and the audit & supervisory board members. In seeking to promptly detect and take remedial action with respect to questionable behavior from the perspective of compliance, the Company has established the Group-wide Mitsui-Soko Group Compliance Hotline, which serves as a direct means for employees of the Group to provide information. The contact point is outsourced to an external provider to provide a system that separates information that can identify whistleblowers and protect whistleblowers' personal information, preventing their identification, while ensuring that whistleblowers are not subject to disadvantageous treatment.

(ii) Retention and management of information regarding the execution of duties by directors of the Group companies

Each of the Group companies records and retains in documents and electromagnetic media (the "Documentation") information on the execution of duties by its directors in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, and internal rules. Directors and audit & supervisory board members of each Group company are able to regularly access such Documentation.

(iii) Regulations and other systems for the management of risk of loss in the Group companies

The Company has established the Risk Management Committee within the Company, which consists of risk managers from the Company and major Group companies. The committee deliberates on the status of risk management for the Group as a whole and stipulates matters to be addressed and policies.

The departments of the Group companies in charge of risk management draw up rules and guidelines, conduct training programs, and prepare and distribute manuals about individual risks, such as those related to compliance, human rights, the environment, natural disasters, quality, finance, accounting, and information security. Meanwhile, the Company's Risk Management Division promotes Group-wide risk assessments and responses.

(iv) System to ensure efficient execution of duties by directors of the Group companies

The Company's Board of Directors draws up the Group's basic guidelines for business over the medium to long term, and the Company centrally handles operations that include the Group's budgetary control, financing, and cash management. Based on those guidelines, the Group companies (the operating companies) that handle business operations in respective fields of business engage in such business operations with their sights set on achieving self-sustaining growth encompassing operations of Group companies under their control. The operating companies periodically provide the Company with reports on matters that include their progress and achievements in that regard so that the Company is able to verify the status of their accomplishments.

(v) System to ensure the properness of operations by the Group

The Group fulfills its responsibility as a member of society, which involves remaining in compliance with the Group's corporate code of conduct while setting its sights on meeting its objectives.

The Company grants directors and executive officers of the Group companies authority and responsibility for legal compliance and risk management, and furthermore directs people in charge of the respective executive headquarters to develop in-house rules and systems to ensure the properness of operations by the Group. Meanwhile, the Company's Risk Management Division promotes such initiatives on a Group-wide basis and furthermore performs audits of the Group companies. The Company maintains a basic framework for business operations suited to the Group's objectives by centrally managing aspects of operations that include financial affairs, capital, branding, intellectual property, human resources, information assets, and real estate.

(vi) System for reporting to the Company on matters related to execution of duties by subsidiaries' directors, executive officers, employees and others

The Company establishes policies on Group governance to articulate responsibilities and authority to be assumed by each company within the Group. Important matters of the Group companies must be approved by or reported to the Company's Board of Directors. In addition, the Group companies periodically furnish the Company with reports on the status of their respective business progress for discussion by the Board of Directors and other meeting forums of the Company.

(vii) System to ensure reliability of financial reporting

In seeking to develop a system to ensure reliability of its financial reporting, the Company accordingly engages in tasks that include preparing basic documents pertaining to risk analysis and control of major operations, drawing up appropriate procedures, and taking measures to prevent errors. In addition, the Group companies periodically take initiative in checking the status of implementing such procedures and measures, and accordingly correct any deficiencies that have been detected. Meanwhile, the Risk Management Division performs audits on a Group-wide basis and confirms results of such checking and corrections.

(viii) System concerning employees appointed to assist audit & supervisory board members upon request, ensuring independence of such employees from directors, and ensuring effectiveness of instructions provided to such employees

The Company appoints dedicated employees (assistants to audit & supervisory board members) who are independent of directors to assist in duties of audit & supervisory board members as necessary. The audit & supervisory board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board maintain the right to lead and instruct such assistants, and accordingly make decisions in a manner that involves respecting outcomes of discussions that have been carried out between directors in charge of personnel and audit & supervisory board members regarding appointment, dismissal, and personnel evaluations of such assistants.

(ix) System for having directors and employees of the Group companies report to the audit & supervisory board members

The directors, executive officers, and employees of the Group companies are to report to the audit & supervisory board members of relevant companies or the Company, regarding statutory matters, matters that may significantly affect relevant companies and the Group, results of internal audits, and the status and details of whistleblowing to the Compliance Hotline. Those reporting to the audit & supervisory board members are not to be given disadvantageous treatment due to making such reports.

(x) System for covering costs incurred by audit & supervisory board members in carrying out their duties and for otherwise ensuring effective audits by audit & supervisory board members

The Company is to assume costs incurred when the Audit & Supervisory Board or audit & supervisory board members seek assistance particularly in the form of investigations and advice from outside experts in order to perform an audit, so long as such costs are reasonable. The audit & supervisory board members are to draw up preliminary annual audit plans to the extent possible, and are to notify respective companies and departments subject to audit of such plans. Meanwhile, companies and departments which become subject to audit are to cooperate with the audit & supervisory board members to ensure that the proposed audits are performed effectively. On the basis of audit results, the Company's audit & supervisory board members are to exchange opinions in a timely manner with the Group companies' representative directors, audit & supervisory board members, accounting auditor, internal audit departments and other relevant departments.

7. Overview of operational status of system to ensure the properness of operations

The overall operational status of the system to ensure the properness of operations is as follows.

(i) Overall system to ensure the properness of operations

In seeking to ensure that operations of the overall Group are carried out properly, the Company has established in-house rules encompassing the Group corporate code of conduct, drawn up the Group governance policy that articulates roles and responsibilities of its holding company and operating companies, and shares such policy within the Group.

In addition, the Company's Risk Management Division performs internal audits of the Group companies and effectively engages in monitoring aligned with Group management.

(ii) Compliance system

To devise ways to strengthen the legal compliance system, the Compliance Committee convenes every quarter. The Company strives to improve its legal compliance system, which includes focusing on compliance-related training programs to raise awareness of compliance issues at Group companies, investigating the status of legal compliance in an ongoing, comprehensive manner in part by conducting annual compliance awareness surveys, verifying the results of compliance activities, and building a system to help prevent compliance violations for the next year.

Meanwhile, in seeking to prevent and quickly detect instances of legal noncompliance, malpractice, and other violations, the Company has drawn up rules for handling whistleblowing and set up the Mitsui-Soko Group Compliance Hotline for Group employees and others. By outsourcing the contact point to an external provider, the Company is protecting whistleblowers' personal information and enhancing the internal reporting system.

(iii) Risk management system

The Company has developed systems necessary for crisis management, which involves establishing Risk Management Regulations that define basic matters pertaining to the recognition and control of risks inherent in the Group's business activities, and striving to improve and strengthen risk management by holding meetings of the Risk Management Committee on a quarterly basis.

(iv) Execution of duties by directors

Having established Regulations of the Board of Directors along with basic regulations regarding administrative authority of the President & CEO and executive directors, the Company ensures that its directors fully comply with laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation. In addition, the Company has been strengthening the supervisory function by electing multiple outside directors and arranging opportunities for the outside directors to actively speak out through the Board of Directors and other such forums.

All of the Company's officers develop a shared awareness of the Group's managerial issues and other challenges through discussions at meetings of the Company's Board of Directors, which generally meets 16 times per year in accordance with the relevant annual plan. Moreover, the Company strengthens the supervisory function with respect to the Group companies by requiring that important matters in the Group companies be subject to Board of Directors' approval or reporting.

(v) Execution of duties by audit & supervisory board members

The audit & supervisory board members, including several outside audit & supervisory board members, confirm the maintenance and operating status of internal controls through their respective attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors, as well as through attendance of the standing audit & supervisory board members at meetings of the Management Council, and important meetings of other forums that include the Compliance Committee and the Risk Management Committee. In addition, the audit & supervisory board members engage in tasks that include periodically exchanging information with the accounting auditor and forums such as the Company's Risk Management Division, which is in charge of internal control functions, monitoring the Group's overall internal control system, as well as raising issues and making recommendations from the perspective of the audit & supervisory board members.

8. Basic policy regarding control of company

With regard to its basic policy to address matters where each shareholder owns a quantity of shares that would result in such shareholder having control over decisions concerning the Company's management policy, the Company believes that decisions on whether to permit a party to seek ownership of such a volume of shares should ultimately be left to the judgment of its shareholders. Accordingly, at this point in time the Company does not intend to adopt so-called takeover defense measures such as defensive measures that would entail preemptive issuance of new share acquisition rights.

The Company must prevent the possibility of unfavorable outcomes potentially incurred by its many shareholders and other investors in the event of an attempt to take over the Company by a party deemed inappropriate with respect to ensuring and increasing the Company's corporate value and common interests of the Company and its shareholders. As such, the Company's Board of Directors takes appropriate measures to prevent such situations, given the Company's responsibility entrusted to it by its shareholders. Should such a situation occur, the Company's Corporate Value Improvement Committee (consisting of the Company's outside directors and outside audit & supervisory board members) will enlist its independent standpoint in carefully investigating and considering how such proposed purchase or takeover proposal could potentially affect the Company's corporate value and the common interests of the Company and its shareholders, based on factors such as the purchaser's business, future business plans, and past investment behavior. Based on such findings, the Board of Directors will sufficiently discuss the matter and render its conclusion as to the best solution with respect to its shareholders from the perspective of corporate value and the common interests of the Company and its shareholders.

9. Policy on decisions on dividends and other appropriation of surplus

Under the Medium-term Management Plan 2022 (from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 to the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027), the Company's basic policy on distribution of funds is to achieve both active investment and strengthening of shareholder returns. For dividends, we have decided on a policy of implementing flexible dividends linked to performance, with a consolidated dividend payout ratio of 30% as our standard.

Pursuant to this policy, for the dividend for the fiscal year under review, we have decided to pay a year-end dividend of $117 per share for a consolidated dividend payout ratio of around 30% for the full year, combined with the interim dividend ($72 per share) for an annual dividend of $189 per share.

Meanwhile, the annual dividend for the next fiscal year has been provisionally set at ¥134 per share, consisting of an interim dividend of ¥67 per share and a year-end dividend of ¥67 per share based on the above dividend policy.
