Integration and Relocation Announcement for MITSUI-SOKO Group's Tokyo Area Head Offices

MITSUI-SOKO HOLDINGS Co., Ltd. (Minato-ku, Tokyo; President and CEO: Hirobumi Koga; hereinafter, "MSH") has announced a plan to integrate the head office functions of MSH and five operating companies of the MITSUI-SOKO Group (MITSUI-SOKO, MITSUI-SOKO EXPRESS, MITSUI-SOKO LOGISTICS, and MITSUI-SOKO Supply Chain Solutions) located in the Tokyo area. These offices will be relocated to the MSH Nihonbashi Hakozaiki Building in May 2025.

By consolidating the Group's head office functions, which are currently spread across three locations, the Group aims to streamline decision-making and enhance management efficiency. This integration and relocation will enhance open communication that transcends organizational and business boundaries, fostering group cohesion. It is anticipated to drive the development of new businesses and expand solution services through collaborative co-creation.
